

PRESS RELEASE – STOMPIN’ ON THE QUOMPS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – 29th July 2016

Headlining the smooth jazz festival Stompin’ on the Quomps this year are the band ‘Lola’s Day Off’. Formed by Moyses dos Santos and Incognito and Level 42 drummer Pete Ray Biggin the band has been storming the nation with a sonic cocktail of fusion, rhythm & blues, hip-hop, jazz, and deep funk grooves with sell-out gigs at Pizza Express and the 606 Club.

Joining the band are Luca Faraone – Guitar, Tomasz Bura – Keyboard, Gabriel Virgilio Pribetti– Saxophone, and Jackson Method – Trumpet together with soul singer Georgia van Etten.

“With this wealth of musicality, love and energy to get your heart pounding, your hands clapping, your body moving and your feet stompin’, Stompin’ on the Quomps on Saturday 6th August 2016 promises to be one of the best in the events 22 year history”, said Adrian Dwyer

Also on the line-up of this popular al fresco festival are Not Just Sax featuring the hugely talented sax of Sarah Bolter, Zoe Schwarz Blue Commotion band, and the Taverners Big Band.

Stompin’ on the Quomps is non-ticketed (free to enter), although the audience are invited to make a donation.

Situated in the picturesque surroundings of Christchurch Quay, it is now one of the largest festivals of its kind in the Country.
