

PRESS RELEASE – STOMPIN’ ON THE QUOMPS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – 19th June 2017

STOMPIN’ ON THE QUOMPS ANNOUNCES HEADLINE BAND

Headling the 23rd smooth jazz festival Stompin’ on the Quomps, with their sonic fusion of Jazz and Soul, will be Snake Davis and his band. Described by DJ, presenter and producer Chris Evans as “the 6th member” of the boy band ‘Take That’, Snake is probably best known for his saxophone solo on the album ‘A Million Love songs’.

Established as one of the UK’s leading Saxophonists, Snake Davis is in demand with the likes of, James Brown, Smokey Robinson, Paul McCartney, Chaka Khan, Lisa Stansfield and many more. He has been seen regularly on TV with the Eurhythmics, M-People and B*Witched and has appeared many times on ‘Later with Jools Holland’. His own material often features on smooth jazz radio and he has guested on many albums by Paul Hardcastle and Acoustic Alchemy

Snake’s music is described as “genuine, emotional, soulful, feel-good music”, which is just a perfect combination for our smooth jazz festival”, said Adrian Dwyer, chairman of the event.

Stompin’ on the Quomps 2017 is on Saturday 5th August on Christchurch Quay, Dorset. Further details are on www.stompin.org and facebook
